Welcome to Lee College!

Congratulations on your decision to further your education and career goals at Lee College. We are excited and thankful you selected us as your institution of higher education. As a Navigator, you have embarked on an exciting and rewarding experience at Lee College. Your next steps are detailed below.

1. APPLY FOR FINANCIAL AID

- Apply for FAFSA (Free Application for Federal Student Aid) at www.studentaid.gov or by contacting the Educational Opportunity Center (EOC) to schedule an appointment. The EOC can be reached at 832.556.4506. Please be sure to bring the required tax return(s).
- Apply for TASFA (Texas Application for State Financial Aid) by completing the application and turning it in to the Financial Aid office in Rundell Hall. Please be sure to bring the required signed tax returns and W-2s from the working parent(s).

Who should submit a TASFA?

- Non-U.S. Citizen
- Lived in Texas for three (3) years or more (before enrolling in college)
- Graduating high school in Texas (or receiving a certificate of high school equivalency)
- Male students who are registered — or will register — for Selective Service

All TASFA information submitted to our office is confidential and will not be shared with other agencies.

English TASFA application | Aplicación TASFA en español

If you have any questions regarding your financial aid, don't hesitate to call our office at 281.425.6389, email finaid@lee.edu, or CHAT online.

If you need assistance completing the TASFA and/or FAFSA, contact GRADcafé or call 832.325.0325.

2. COMPLETE ADMISSIONS REQUIREMENTS

- High school transcript with graduation date or GED is required (unless you graduated from high school more than five years ago OR you are not a high school graduate/have not completed the GED. Electronically sent transcripts are preferred, but make sure that paper copies are official and remain sealed in their envelope until they are provided to Admissions & Records staff.)
- Official, sealed, or electronically sent copies of all college transcripts are required. (For fastest processing, request transcripts to be sent electronically via EDI format; paper copies of the transcript must be official and remain sealed in their envelope until they are provided to the Admissions & Records staff.)

- Meningitis: First-time, transferring, or returning students at Lee College may be required to show evidence of vaccination against bacterial meningitis. Vaccination for students less than 22 years of age. The meningitis vaccination is not required if you are only enrolled in online courses.

3. COMPLETE TESTING REQUIREMENTS

Determine your testing needs

You must complete placement tests or have a valid testing exemption. If you will be pursuing an associates degree (associate of arts, an associate of science, or associate of applied science), or if you are seeking one of the following certificates:

- Audio Engineering Technology
- Advanced Accounting Technician
- Electrical, Instrumentation, and Analytical II
- Instrumentation Technology
- Process Technology
- Vocational Nursing

- If you are pursuing any other certificate, you will not be required to complete testing.
- Complete the TSIA2 placement test (if your program requires it)
 - # First, complete the pre-assessment activity:
www.lee.edu/testing/tsi/preassessment-activity/
 - # Second, schedule the TSIA2 ELAR and / or the TSIA2 MATH tests based on your needs:
registerblast.com/lee
 - # Third, take your tests (testing takes place on campus, in the Testing Center).
 - # Testing Center contact information: 281.425.6262 or leetesting@lee.edu.
Located in Rundell Hall, Room 211
- Once you have completed all required testing, or if you are exempt from testing, you will want to meet with your advisor. Please see the next section on this page for details.

4. MEET WITH ADVISOR / REGISTER FOR CLASSES

Academic advisors partner with you to develop a path to your goals. An advisor assists you in determining the best pathway for your goals, discusses any testing or placement items required, and completes your first-semester enrollment with you.

- Determine your pathway.
 - # Your pathway represents your dreams and goals. It helps you and your advisor focus on getting you where you want to go.
 - # Explore and discover your path. This will determine your academic advisor.
- Meet with your advisor.
 - # Once you have determined your pathway and testing needs, you can reach out to your advisor to finalize everything and work on enrollment.

5. LEARN ABOUT OUR TEXTBOOK PROGRAM

What is myBooks?

myBooks is the Lee College book program designed to provide students with materials (kits, e-books, and textbooks) on their first day of class.

- Cost of participation
To take advantage of this option, students must opt to stay in the program. The cost is $27.50 per semester credit hour. (Learn more about costs and credit hours.)
- Students who opt out are responsible for getting their own materials. (Learn more about how to opt out.)
- myBooks pick-up locations:
Physical textbooks and Kits — 700 West Texas, Suite 100 (map)
- E-books — Blackboard on the first day of class

For more information about accessing the materials from the myBooks program, email myBooks@lee.edu.

6. COMPLETE MANDATORY NEW STUDENT ORIENTATION (NSO)

You must complete both parts of the orientation. Contact information: orientation@lee.edu

Part A: This online module can be completed from your personal computer, tablet, or phone anytime. The online module will take about an hour to complete. You must log in to the module with your Lee College ID number to receive credit. Access the online orientation module.

Part B: A live orientation that will take place on campus or virtually through WebEx. After completing the online module (please wait at least 12 hours), you can register for a live orientation session. (Feel free to invite your family to this event.) Failure to complete the live orientation will prevent your forthcoming registration.

7. PAY FOR CLASSES

Apply for Lee College Foundation Scholarships

Scholarships for tuition and textbooks are awarded annually to help students cover educational expenses. Scholarships are available for all students, regardless of their area of study. See eligibility requirements and/or apply for a scholarship.

Financial Aid

Federal and state aid is based on the results of your eligibility from the FAFSA submission.

Types of aid are as follows:

- Grant Aid
This is aid that does not have to be paid back, such as Pell Grants, Supplemental Education Opportunity Grants, and Texas Public Education Grants.
- Self-Help Aid
This aid is in the form of federal and state work-study. Work-study programs students to work on campus up to 17½ hours per week at the minimum wage.

- First Time FREE at Lee

Lee College is thrilled to offer a student support plan for fall 2023. If you have not attended Lee College since earning your diploma or GED, your first long semester is free. You can attend with no out-of-pocket cost for tuition, fees, and e-books. Your costs will be paid by your financial aid and Lee College Foundation scholarships first, with the remainder being covered by Lee College. Eligible for fall 2023.
