Boundless

Axis 360 is now Boundless. We have updated our Ebooks and Audiobooks on Boundless with over 1500 titles. We have subjects such as learning languages, cookbooks, self-help, learning to play chess, and a wide variety of fiction.

The library provides access to an integrated eBook and audiobook library called Boundless. To get started, go to the Boundless banner above or click on your app store to download the app. For more information or to request an eBook or audiobook, contact Will Mayer at wmayer@lee.edu.

Library News

Library Services:

Textbooks:

- To access textbooks, go to Moler Hall, Room 115S. That is the opt-in Bookstore location.

- For more information, please email Dalia Carmona, the Instructional Materials Manager, at mybooks@lee.edu or at 281.425.6445.

Virtual Reality Room:

- We offer the use of two Quest 3's for all students and staff in a dedicated room at the library.
- Feel free to drop by and use our VR.
- We also have 2 Quest 2's that Instructors can check out for a month for their classes.

Nintendo Switch:

- We have a Nintendo Switch with four pro controllers and many Switch games for in-library use.
- Drop by the front desk to check it out.
- We are creating an eSports club for competitive gaming in the Fall.

Checking out library materials:

- Includes books, DVDs, graphic novels, games like Cards Against Humanity, and more.
- We also check out laptops for in-library use, math calculators, headphones, and umbrellas.
- If we don't have what you are looking for, we can purchase it or borrow it from another library.
- The library is open to all visitors.

Help with reference, research, and general questions:

- Service is provided in person or remotely. Contact us via email, chat, text, or phone.
- We do library instruction and can arrange times for classes or to come onsite for our dual credit classes.
- We can show students or classes how to use library resources and search our databases.

Electronic Articles, eBooks, streaming academic videos, and more:

- All online library materials are available to all students and employees of Lee College through any computer with Internet access. Use your student or employee number and password to access materials remotely.
- Off-campus users will use their Lee College ID number and password to access online library resources.
- We have a Boundless electronic collection that has many eBooks and Audiobooks.
- You can also visit the library to access any of our digital resources.

Study Rooms and Computers:

- Library study rooms and computers are available for use.

- Group study space is available by reservation in the ATC or at the library. See here for additional details about group study spaces.
